

Our Ethical Framework

A Container for Courageous Creativity

At Weirdness as a Service, we believe that the most powerful ideas are often found outside the lines. Our mission is to provide a unique, playful, and provocative space to help you to locate them. We do have some core principles, and we stick to those. Please have a read!

The Foundation: Playful but Lawful

Absurdity is a tool for creative expansion, not for chaos, harm or illegal acts. All services and interactions will be conducted within the bounds of the law; they might contain very unlawful ideas for fictional characters (for example, evil villains with a touch of weirdness), but it stops there.

The Vibe: Weird, Not Creepy

We love the unusual, the quirky, and the absurd. Things that are bizarre enough to have a laugh. Since people are different, what's weird for someone might already be too much for somebody else. So please let us know if anything is heading in a direction that you find uncomfortable.

The Commitment: Zero Discrimination

We provide our services to anyone, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disability, religion, national origin, or any other protected status. Our weirdness is inclusive and celebrates the unique spark in every individual.

The Cornerstone: Enthusiastic Consent

Consent is fundamental and ongoing. We will clearly explain the process and potential outcomes of any session. You will always know what to expect, and your "yes" must be informed and enthusiastic. You are always the author of your experience. You can stop any session at any time, and you don't need to explain yourself.

The Intent: Breaking Comfort Zones, Not Minds

Our goal is to gently stretch your creative and personal boundaries, not shatter personal realities. We are here to challenge perspectives, not to cause psychological distress. The focus is on constructive, positive disruption.

The Boundary: Adults-Only Space

Sorry, no minors. To maintain a space for uninhibited adult exploration and to ensure complex, mature themes can be navigated safely, our services are strictly for individuals 21 years of age and older. If you're a kid and get sad reading this, then just ponder that: kids are way weirder than adults already - what can you teach us instead?

Your Power: The Permanent Pause Button

Any chat or experience can be put on hold or stopped by you at any time, for any reason, with no explanation needed. Your comfort and autonomy are non-negotiable. A simple "I'd like to stop" or "Let's change direction" is all that is required.

The Focus: Your Journey, Your Story

The focus is you. Not your partner, your kid, your teammate. Our sessions are a dedicated space for your growth and your ideas. We will not facilitate sessions designed to analyze or manipulate others without their direct, knowing participation and consent.

Our Promise: Confidentiality is Key

Your stories, ideas, and vulnerabilities shared in our sessions are held in strict confidence. What happens in the weirdosphere, stays in the weirdosphere. Your information will never be shared by us without your explicit permission, except where required by law.

The Ultimate Goal: A Positive, Propelling Setting

This is supposed to be a positive setting. The energy is one of proactive learning, absurd banter and empowerment. We conclude every session with clarity, hope, and concrete next steps. You should leave feeling energized with a head full of new ideas, or at least a few things to deeply think about.
